*Good luck to a good football player and a good guy I've enjoyed my association with you, and hope you do well in the future.
 Cliff Wood*

We, the staff, proudly dedicate this annual the 1954 Log, to the Weyerhauser Football Team, a group of individuals who, this season, have proven that winning a football game is more than just a physical matter. This group has held sportsmanship, cooperation, and loyalty ahead of personal glory; a fine achievement. We also include in this, a dedication to Coach Lepley and Mr. Wood, who have given that little "extra" of their time and energy to make this football season the success that it has been.

For the first time in current school history it became an impossibility to select a student for the Valedictorian, Salutatorian, and Historian awards. The scholastic competition was so keen that when the final computations were made, Joan Lozowski, Robert Koehler, and Evelyn Romanowski were deadlocked in a three-way tie for first place.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Through the doors of Weyerhauser High School, on August 28, 1950, tripped thirty-five outstanding Freshmen, who proved to become even more outstanding as the years passed. Our enrollment dropped when Carl Mortensen, Jean Wells, Lorraine Benik, and Edna Peaseley left the class, but it was again raised with the coming of Myrna Anderson and Joyce Baxter. After being introduced to a bit of high school routine, the Sophomores shoved the dreaded initiation exercises upon us. The initiation party given for us that September evening seemed to make the whole day worthwhile after all. We gave a return party in October.

We started our Sophomore year August 27, 1951, with all our class members except three. These were James Plaskey, John Kogat, and Myrna Anderson. This year our happy group was joined by John and Bob Miller, Jean Wells, and Ronald Smolly; but during the course of the year we lost Dick Gunn, Wilma James, Gilbert Hanson and Joyce Baxter. Ronald also left before the year ended, leaving an enrollment of twenty-nine. We initiated the Freshmen in September. Class members serving as Homecoming Attendants were Jean Wells, Donald Kolek, Evelyn Romanowski, and Doug. Preston. Our Jean Wells represented our school at Madison, where she won a "B" rating with her serious declamation in the state forensic meet.

Back to W. H. S. we trudged in the fall of 1952, finding ourselves to be sophisticated Juniors. At the beginning of the year Felix Szleszinski joined our class. We lost Carl Mortensen, but gained another member in Darrell Keller. This made an enrollment of thirty. The first huge event of the year was our class play "Finders Creepers," presented March 12. The second successful event was our Junior Prom, held April 24. The theme was "Moon Over Miami," with Jimmy Knight's Orchestra from Eau Claire to serenade us. Thomas Dzimiel and Jeanne Michalski were King and Queen, and Arnold Checkalski and Carol Tatur were Prince and Princess. Evelyn Romanowski, Patsy Mujwid, and Jean Wells were cheerleaders. Patsy Mujwid was our pretty Homecoming Queen. Our class was well represented on the Student Council. Besides our four class officers, Arnold Checkalski and Donald Kolek were elected representatives from the student body. Doug. Preston was Student Council president; Donald Kolek, Vice President; and Evelyn Romanowski, Secretary. The minstrel show couldn't have been a success without Red Kazmierkoski, Bob Miller, and Calvin Kramer rendering their humorous services as "end men."

At long last August 31, 1953, rolled around, and we finally became mighty Seniors and "official dictators" of W. H. S. (Look out lower classmen!!) All of our classmates returned except Jeanne Michalski, Calvin Kramer, and Darrell Calkins. This reduced our enrollment to twenty-seven. The hustle and bustle of excitement began right from the very beginning. That long yearning for our class rings was finally satisfied when we received them during the first week of school. Our senior class pictures were taken at the Du Bois Studios in Ladysmith on September 16. (We never did find out how many cameras were incapacitated!!) This year our class was again represented on the Student Council. Donald Kolek, Arnold Checkalski, and Donald Ridout were the elected student-body representatives. Donald Kolek was Student Council president; Patricia Mujwid was Secretary. The annual staff, which was chosen the previous year by the faculty, began working on annual assignments. Plans and preparations were soon under way for the annual Homecoming Day festivities. (Our class had won prizes for our homecoming floats during each of the three previous years.) Bob Koehler was King, and the senior attendants were Patsy Mujwid and Doug. Preston. The football team was well represented by many of our senior boys. We were very proud of their fine athletic abilities and sportsmanship this year as well as the previous years; they also proved to be fine athletes in basketball and track. Jean Wells, Patsy Mujwid, and Evelyn Romanowski were cheerleaders again this year.

Even though our four high school years were very busy ones, they were also exciting and happy. We always will remember Weyerhauser High and will look back proudly at the wonderful times we have spent there.

We, the Senior Class of 1954, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the dear faculty, who have been our instructors during the era of our high school days, we leave,-- and that in itself should be enough!

To the Freshmen we leave our bright and cheerful dispositions, so that there will be joy and happiness as long as they are around.

To the Sophomores we bequeath our quiet dignity, so as to keep the teachers sane.

To the Juniors we leave our ability to cooperate with the faculty and fellow schoolmates.

Senior Class Prophecy

This is the year 1964 and, as we peek in the foremost corners of the earth, we discover what each member of the Weyerhauser class of '54' is doing.

First we see on the shores of beautiful lake Obagobasloba the huge resort which is owned by Maynard Bickel. Here also we find two other classmates on vacation; Darrell Keller, the oil king from Texas, and Bob Miller, the great playwright, who is writing his latest play, "The Return of Romeo," starring that great lover, Ronnie Zarecki, who plays the part of Romeo.

As we get back on the main highway, we are lucky enough to get a ride with Jean Wells who has just bought a new Roadhog V-24. We hear on the radio the voice of Eugene Klawiter who is now a sports announcer. He is broadcasting the wrestling match between the women and men's championship of the world. These champions are Carol Tatur and Frank Ludwikowski.

As we go along we see perched on a pole, high in the air, 1st-class lineman Doug Preston. Shhh! don't disturb him; he's speaking to his chief telephone operator, Gert Phillips.

In the distance we see the newly constructed Acorn Ballroom, owned by Arnie Checkalski. Arnie features his old-time band once a week. In the day-light hours the hall is used by Felix (Arthur Murray) Szleszinski, who gives dancing lessons. One of his better pupils is Donald (Hot Foot) Ridout.

A little further down the road we see the daisy farm of Casper Walicki. We happen to know that his milk is shipped to "Koehler Kooperative Creamery," which is owned by Bob Koehler.

As we scan the country-side, we see a little band of hunters. Upon closer scrutiny we see it is led by that famed Blue Hills guide, Don Kolek.

We stop in at the State Capitol because we have heard that another former classmate is filibustering before the Senate. It is none other than Catherine Sieja.

As we look around we see two stenographers who are the Governor's own; they are Patsy Mujwid and Evelyn Romanowski.

As we enter the streets, we meet that great inventor of hair dyes, Scientist Ed Kazmierkoski, who is working on a new shade of red.

Next we see on the street a cozy little camera shop which is owned by Dick Vobornik who, incidentally, owns the best Chev. in the country (so he says).

As we stroll through the University campus, we pause to talk to a strange-looking little man. No! Wait! It isn't a strange-looking little man. It's that well-loved English professor, John Miller. He tells us he has just run into an old classmate, Joan Lozowski, who works as a barker in a circus side show. We discover she is not the only one in show business. Another show trouper is that singing troubador of the range, Keith Gunn. He is teamed up with that song and dance gal, that belle of the Salisbury area, Anita Kroll. In a specialty act we find that great vaudeville actor, who works in black face, Tom Dzimielala.

And last, but not least, we find the only member of our great class who has finally settled down, none other than Dorothy Wonn, the great housewife.

This brings us to the end of our tour of the class of '54.

Class History

In 1951, thirty-one boys and girls entered Weyerhauser High as Freshmen.

After becoming acquainted, the formality of initiation was sprung upon us. Initiation which was held on September 14th was followed by a party that night in our honor. We returned the favor on the 27th of the same month.

Bob Guthridge, Nancy Bentz, and Carl Ludwikowski left our class early in the school year. Diane and Jim Michalski joined our group along with Nancy Bentz who had returned later in the year.

James Daniels, Donald Zahorski, Dianne Grzybowski, and Robert Kendzior were elected as class officers that year.

On August 25, 1952, all of us returned except Marvin Johnson. Beverly Barth was the only new addition to our class.

As Sophmores, it was now our turn to initiate the Freshmen. This we did in October, and gave a party for them that night.

Marcella Mujwid, Jim Bednarek, Dianne Grzybowski, and Bob Kendzior were elected as our Sophmore Class officers.

School started on August 31, 1953, with every student accounted for. Our Junior Class has not lost any of its members nor has it gained any.

Our first Junior Class meeting was held on September 4th at which we elected our class officers: Jim Michalski Jim Bednarek, Marcella Mujwid, and Donald Zahorski.

There were still 27 of us enrolled our sophomore year. Dorothy Calkins left us, and Tom Swada joined our group.

September 28, 1953 we had our turn at initiating the Freshmen. Mr. Schwellenbach is our class advisor.

Class Officers

Class History

On August 31, 1953, one of the largest classes of freshman to enter Weyerhauser high school was enrolled. There were thirty-five of us anxiously waiting to start our activities and make new friends.

We were initiated on a bleak, cold September day, but we showed the Sophomores that we could take it. We gave the return party on the night of October 14, 1953.

At "Homecoming" this year we upheld the freshman tradition by winning first prize in the humorous float division. This float was made to resemble a haunted house complete with spooks, screams, and the rattling of chains.

Our class advisor is Mr. Meyers, and our class officers are President, Kenneth Zahorski; Vice President, Delores Ridout; Secretary, Catherine McCracken; Treasurer, Rosemary Burak.
