Notes for Johanna Wilhelmina Auguste BORCHARDT:

Registration of death has "cancer of stomach" another birth place shows GroB, Oberallgau, Bayern, Germany. Death certificates are not always accurate when filled out by family members.

Notes for Friedericke Auguste Rachel BORCHARDT:

She emigrated with her husband, Carl Malzahn, one child and her mother settling in the Town of Neenah, Wisconsin. In three or four years they settled in the Town of Germania, Wisconsin

Her marriage record from St Pauls Lutheran Church to Wilhelm Kohn shows her father as Johann Borchardt and her mother as Wilhelmina Kohn. I later found records that spelled her mothers last name as Korth. I believe the handwritten records of the church may be in error as the later records I found in the death certificate, etc show Korth.

Obituary: Thursday, June 23, 1927, Mrs... Albert Kohn

Mrs... Friedericke Kohn, wife of Albert Kohn, Town of Germania, died last Thursday morning at 3:45. She had been in ill health for a number of years. Mrs.. Kohn was almost 71 years of age at the time of her death. Funeral services were held at her home Saturday afternoon at 1:30 followed by services at St Pauls Church, Rev. G. F. Fierke officiating. The pallbearers were Frank Foth, George Schroeder, William Wieland, William Mavis, Ed Liskow and Clarence Wendler. Flower bearers were Dora Wieland, Louise Borchardt, Hazel Cleveland, Edna and Louise Breaker and Louise Foth. Interment took place at Forest Home Cemetery Freidericka Wilhelmina Borchardt was born in Goldna, Germany, on November 17, 1856. She grew to womanhood in that country. In the year 1881 she came to this country with husband, Carl Malzahn, one child and her mother settling in the Town of Neenah, Wisconsin. They lived in that city for 3 or 4 years then moved up here, settling on a homestead in the Town of Germania. Her husband was killed in an accident while excavating a well on the Mavis farm in 1887. In 1894 she was married to Wilhelm Kohn, of Hunting. After the death of her second husband in 1897 she married his brother Albert Kohn of the Town of Germania in the year 1898.

Besides her husband, Albert Kohn, she leaves eight children to mourn her death, namely: Mrs... Bertha Eggleston, Crandon; Mrs.. Adolf Breaker, Rib Lake; Frank Malzahn, Wittenberg; Charles Malzahn, Antigo; Mrs.. George Kriegle, Tigerton; Alfred Kohn, Shawano; Philip Kohn, Wittenberg; and Ferdinand Kohn also of Wittenberg. She leaves two sisters, Mrs.. Fred Wolfe and Mrs.. William Bredendick; two brothers, William Borchardt and August Borchardt; 22 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren and five step-children.

Another notice that appeared in the newspapers after the funeral was: June 23, 1927, Mr... and Mrs... Otto Meyer, Mr... and Mrs... Charles Pribbernow, and Mr... and Mrs.. Chas. Engel attended the funeral of Mrs... Albert Kohn of Germania, Saturday. The deceased was the step-mother of the above mentioned ladies.

Notes for Wilhelm Carl Freiderick BORCHARDT:

His cause of death was "Dropsy".

Obituary: He immigrated 1884 to Neenah, Wisconsin and then moved to Town of Germania. His residence later was in Wittenberg, Wisconsin across the street from Freidericka. His obituary states that he was one of the earliest pioneers to settle in the primeval forest that stretched over a large part of this section of the state. He got a tract of land in the Town of Germania and was married a few years later in the Village of Wittenberg. His farm was one of the fine farms of the township with substantial and modern buildings.

Marriage registered May 20, 1892. Witnesses were A. Fiede, F. Malzahn.
Place marriage contracted was Germania Range.

1910 Census for the Town of Germania, Shawano County, Wisconsin shows all of this family except for Ida, Louise, Doris and Emma.

Pallbearers were: his sons, Herman, Carl, William and Richard and two nephews, Herman Wolfe and Phillip Kohn.

His tombstone inscription reads "Carl F. W. Borchardt".

He is listed as one of the first 26 voting settlers in the Town of Germania, Shawano County, Wisconsin.
